High Stone is a high-performance porcelain tile collection developed for architects and interior designers seeking sophisticated, stone-inspired finishes with long-term technical reliability. Characterized by its refined mineral detailing and a balanced palette of warm and cool neutrals, High Stone evokes the aesthetic of lightly veined sedimentary stone. Its subtly textured surface and precise rectified edges offer a natural, tactile feel, ideal for both contemporary and timeless design schemes. With large-format sizes and coordinating trims, High Stone supports cohesive spatial narratives across floors and walls, indoors and out. It meets the aesthetic and durability demands of residential, commercial, and hospitality environments, offering a solution that is as practical as it is elegant.
