Calx is a refined stone-effect porcelain tile collection designed for contemporary commercial and residential interiors. Inspired by natural limestone aesthetics, the range combines soft mineral movement with a clean architectural finish, making it ideal for designers, architects, and specifiers seeking timeless surfaces with modern versatility. Suitable for floors and walls, Calx delivers a balanced and understated look that works seamlessly across hospitality, retail, wellness, residential, and large-scale specification projects. Its contemporary stone-inspired appearance pairs beautifully with minimalist palettes, natural materials, and modern interior schemes. Manufactured in durable porcelain, Calx offers a practical surface solution with the aesthetic appeal of natural stone while maintaining the consistency and performance required for high-traffic environments.
